Brown County Circuit Court Judge Donald Zuidmulder received the Spirit of Leadership Award on Thursday from JOSHUA, an interfaith social justice organization composed of 16 area churches and religious organizations

The group honored Zuidmulder for his work in establishing the Brown County Drug Court.

JOSHUA also honored Sister Maria Drzewiecki for her work and dedication with social justice issues within the Latino community. Drzewiecki is a member of the Sisters of Saint Francis of the Holy Cross

The awards were presented at the group's annual meeting at St. Matthew Catholic Church.
